Laxative combination folks know is trustworthy

The confidence thousands of parents have in good, old reliable, powdered Theodore's Black-Draught has prompted them to get the new Syrup of Black-Draught for their children. The grown folks stick to the powdered Black-Draught; the youngsters probably will prefer it when they discover their childhood love of sweets.

Mrs. C. W. Adams, of Murray, Ky., writes: "I have used Theodore's Black-Draught (powder) about thirty years, taking it for biliousness. Black-Draught acts well and I am always pleased with the results. I wanted a good, reliable laxative for my children. I have found Syrup of Black-Draught to be just that."

COURTESY—
"THE GENUINE ARTICLE"

There are two kinds of courtesy in modern business. One, is politeness, which is good. The other, is "the genuine article," which is better.

To the Norfolk and Western Railway Family, courtesy means more than mere politeness. It means friendliness toward the manufacturer and the farmer along the railroad lines, and toward the traveler. It means a sincere interest in their problems. It means a sincere desire to serve them faithfully and efficiently. And it means a sincere appreciation for their patronage. This is "the genuine article." It is genuine because it springs from something deeper than simply the desire to sell freight and passenger service.

Employees of the Norfolk and Western Railway—all the way through the ranks—have grown up with the railroad and the territory it traverses. The railroad's success is their success. Its achievements are their achievements. And in its progress, and the progress of Norfolk and Western, they will get more and more politeness. You will get that which distinguishes the Norfolk and Western Family—courtesy that is "the genuine article."
